

BONESFEST XII

OCTOBER 17-18-19 2008

ST. LOUIS RIVERFRONT

RHYTHMBONES.COM

Rhythm Bones Society

BONES FEST XII PROGRAM

Subject to Change

THURSDAY- October 16, 2008 (Pre Fest)

- 3:00 to 4:00 PM Sightseeing cruise on the "Tom Sawyer".
5:00 to 7:00 PM RBS press conference, Crown Plaza Bar
7:30 to Midnight Bones prefest bub crawl through Laclede's Landing

FRIDAY- October 17, 2008

- 12:00AM to 8:00PM Bones Museum, Learning center, Market Place and Fest Registration.....Museum Room, Provincial House, South Campus, University of Missouri at St. Louis
- 2:00PM to 5:00PM Open House reception, boning, and banding together Dorm lobbies and court yard, UofMo St.Louis. Hosted by the "Dormers".
- 5:00PM to 7:00PM Optional group excursion to the "Delmar Loop", two Metro train stops away for diner and drinks. Or eat On campus.
- 6:30PM to 7:30PM Bones U. presents Rhythm Bones 101 (History and technique) for beginners. Team taught. Open to the Public. Sigh up and acquire bones at the Museum room.
- 7:30PM to 10PM Bones Fest XII grand opening, Gill promenade, first time presentations, production and rehearsals for our Saturday public presentations.
- 10:00PM to 1:00AM Voluntary Bones pub crawl through Delmar Loop. Metro train is the designated driver.

Saturday October 18, 2008

- 9:00AM to 8:00PM Bones museum, Market Place and Fest registration open to the public all day. Museum Room, Provincial House, UofMo-St.Louis.
- 9:00AM to 12 noon Bones University in session. Register at the Museum Room for intermediate and advanced workshops, bones playing, bones making and playing with Irish and other Celtic music.

(over)

BF XII PROGRAM: CONTINUED

12:00AM to 2:00PM All aboard the Metro train from the South Campus Station to Union Station. Bones Fest public show (1:00 to 1:45) Directed by Walt Watkins. You may purchase your lunch in the Union Station food court or eat your sack lunch.

2:00PM to 4:00PM BF XII splits into two minstrel troupes. Troupe A Marches to the Soldier's Memorial (4 blocks) for a public show (show time, 2:30 to 3:00PM) Then we March 12 blocks with the Bones Show banner down the mall, through the Serra sculpture, through Kiener Plaza, through the "Dred Scott" Federal Court House, under the gateway arch and to the Mississippi River front. There we will greet Troupe B as they return from their river cruise with much fanfare, flag waving, and bones playing.

Troupe B (boat) will leave Union Station by train and auto and go directly to the river front and board the "Tom Sawyer" for a 3 to 4PM river cruise. ($10/adult, $5/child with group of 20 or more)

4:00PM to 4:30PM Group Photo under the Gateway Arch.

5:00PM to 7:00PM Open house and reception for all participants, Hosted by our first class passengers at the Crown & - Plaza Hotel.

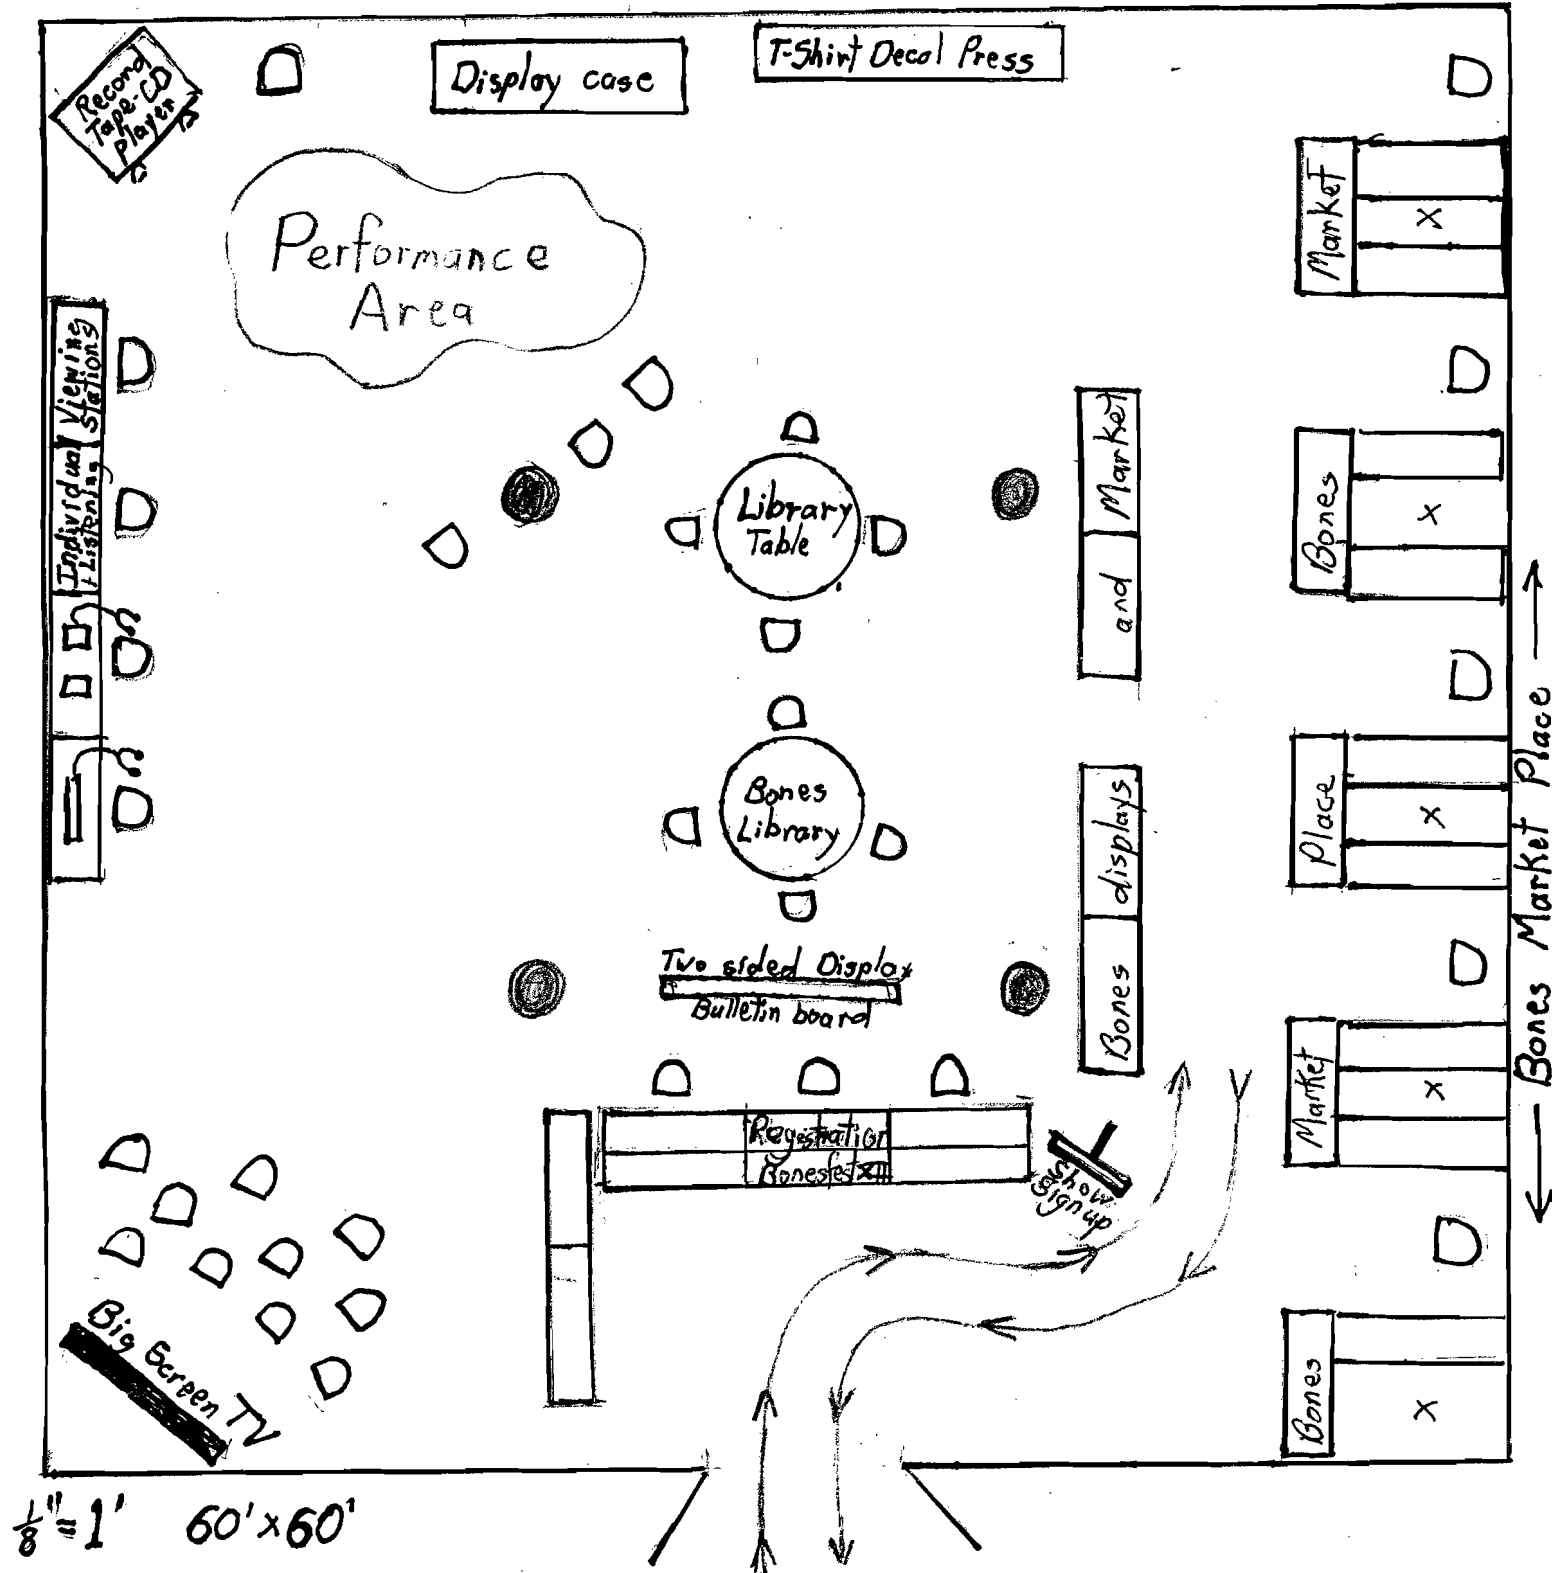

8:00PM to 11:00PM Grand Bones Fest show open to the public ending with a Hibben rhythm bones promenade.

11:00PM to wee hours Bones musical pub crawl for the young and foolish.

Sunday, October 19, 2008 (we have a list of 4 churches walking distance of UMSL.)

9:00AM to 11:AM Delicious brunch buffet complete with Starbucks coffee served in the "Under Croft" multipurpose room. A fine fare thee well show!

1:00PM to 3:30PM Octoberfest riverboat cruise ($35/adult, $15/child) Bone and Oomp pa pa down the Mississippi to the sounds of a live German band and savor an authentic German buffet.

BONESFEST XII Registration- Bones MARKET PLACE- RHYTHM BONES Museum

The Musume Room will be open to the public and continuously staffed by "Bortes Family Volunteers", no less then two each shift. In addition to assisting with registration and being generally helpful, the volunteers will maintain a vigil of security!

We welcome all rhythm bone craftsman and merchants to display and sell their wares in the Bones Market Place. Your display will be part of our show.

IF YOU HAVE ANY PHOTOGRAPHS, BOOKS, VIDEO, CD's, or other Memorabilia relating to rhythm bones, PLEASE BRING IT FOR OUR MUSUME-LIBRARY.